The cost to fix dilapidated and overcrowded schools across America was $127 billion in 1999, according to the U.S. Department of Education. After years of neglect, the cost has now risen to $250 billion.

We can't afford to wait any longer.

LiUNA!

The half million members of LiUNA—the Laborers' International Union of North America—are on the forefront of the construction industry, a powerhouse of 10 million workers who are proud to build America.
